 - (a) visiting the Website;
 - (b) contacting or visiting your local Post Office® branch; or
 - (c) calling the Customer Service Centre.

29. In the case of additional cheque Deposits, interest is payable from the date that we receive payment value from the bank on which your cheque is drawn. In most cases, this will be a minimum of 2 Business Days after you have made an additional Deposit. Full details can be found in the Guide, which explains the clearing cycle. 33. Interest is calculated and payable up to the close of business the day before any withdrawal or closure.

Interest Rate Guarantee

34. The way our Interest Rate Guarantee operates is if, at any time, the Bank Base Rate changes so that the interest on your Account is more than 1% below Bank Base Rate, within 30 days we will increase the rate on your Account so that it is no more than 1% below Bank Base Rate at the time of the change.
35. Any changes to the rates of interest on your Account as a result of the Interest Rate Guarantee will be applied immediately and without prior notice but we may inform you of any such changes after the event in accordance with Condition 39.
36. We reserve the right to amend or withdraw our Interest Rate Guarantee in the same way, and for the same reasons, as we may change any of the other terms and conditions of the Agreement.

Changes in the Interest Rates

37. We may change interest rates on your Account (and introduce or change different rates applicable to different Account balances) for any of the following reasons:
 - (a) if there have been changes in the Bank Base Rate or if we have good reason to expect changes;
 - (b) if changes have been announced by our competitors in the rates paid on accounts that are broadly comparable with your Account;
 - (c) if we need to reflect any regulatory requirements or guidance, a decision or recommendation of any court or ombudsman or any change in taxation or the law that impinges on the interest rates that we pay to investors;
 - (d) to ensure our business is sustainable in the long term;
 - (e) to reflect the rates being paid on our other accounts so as to ensure that the interest rates we pay reflect the features of our accounts (so that, for example, accounts with longer notice periods receive a higher rate of interest, other features being the same).

Where we reduce the interest rate on your Account we will notify you of the change at least 14 days before it is due to take effect in accordance with the provisions of Condition 77.

If you object to any such notified change, you must inform us of this within 60 days by writing to us and we will treat this as notice of your intention to terminate the Agreement and close or switch your Account. In the absence of notice to the contrary, you will be deemed to have accepted such change with effect from the notified effective date.

38. Unless our Interest Rate Guarantee applies, we do not have to change the interest rate of your Account when the Bank Base Rate or other interest rates change. However:
 - (i) If your balance is equal to or greater than £500, we will notify you if the margin between the interest rate on your Account and the Bank Base Rate has increased to your disadvantage by more than 0.5% looking back:
 - over the previous 12 months, or, if that is shorter,
 - to the last time we notified you under this Condition.
 - (ii) We will notify you under this Condition by writing to you at your Registered Address within a reasonable time and we will also:
 - tell you about our other comparable Post Office® savings accounts (and, if available, we will help you to switch to one of these if you want to); and
 - remind you that you can withdraw all the money in your Account if you want to (for which there is no notice period or charge), save that a £15,000 restriction applies where you withdraw via the internet and telephony options.
39. Where applicable, we will notify you of any change to interest rates on your Account by:
 - (a) updating the Website within 3 working days of the change; or
 - (b) updating information provided through the Customer Service Centre within 3 working days of the change; or
 - (c) by placing advertisements in the Telegraph and Daily Mail (or any other two daily newspapers circulating throughout the UK) within 3 working days of the change.

To help you compare rates more easily, the notification will set out both the old and the new rates.

40. An accidental error or omission in notifying you of a change to the interest rate on your Account will not invalidate the change.

Taxation

41. Interest will normally be paid after deduction of tax at the prevailing rate specified by law for the current tax year.
42. We will pay interest without deducting tax if we have accepted the relevant HM Revenue and Customs declaration, verbally or in writing telling us that you do not expect to be a taxpayer. You must do this separately for each Account you hold with us. In the case of a Joint Account, all parties must make a valid declaration.
43. If we pay interest without deducting tax where tax should have been deducted we shall be entitled to recover any overpayment from you. If the overpayment was caused principally by error on our part we may only recover it if we make good any disadvantage that you suffer as a result.
44. We will not accept a declaration of non-ordinary residence (Form R105) and will deduct tax at the prevailing rate from interest paid where appropriate.

46. You can make Withdrawals from your Account:

 - (b) we may require you to repay the amount of the overdraft (but, to the extent the overdraft arose from our error we must act reasonably in relation to how much we require you to repay and when); and

 - (c) improve the service offered to you or to make it more efficient or cost effective;
 - (d) reflect a decision or recommendation of any court or ombudsman.

For the purposes of this provision, any proposed amendment or removal of the terms and conditions of the Agreement will be referred to as a 'change'.

75. Where we reasonably believe a change is to your advantage, it will be applied immediately without prior notice and we may notify you of any such change in accordance with Condition 77.
76. For all other changes to the terms and conditions of the Agreement, we will notify you of the change at least 2 months before it is due to take effect by whatever means we, in our sole discretion, deem appropriate. If you object to any such notified change, you must inform us of this within 2 months by writing to us and we will treat this as notice of your intention to terminate the Agreement and close or switch the Account. You will not be charged for closing or switching your Account in these circumstances. In the absence of notice to the contrary, you will be deemed to have accepted such change with effect from the notified effective date.
77. Where applicable, we will notify you of any changes by:

 - (b) taking out adverts in the Telegraph and Daily Mail (or any other two daily newspapers circulating throughout the UK); or

79. An accidental error or omission in telling you about a change to the terms and conditions of the Agreement shall not invalidate the change.
80. If we have made a major change or a lot of minor changes to the terms and conditions of the Agreement in any one Year, we will give or send you a copy of the new terms and conditions or a summary of the changes.

87. You acknowledge that we are bound to give effect to any legal order to which we are subject and which affects your Account. You agree that you will pay us (and we may debit to your Account) any costs or expenses to which we are reasonably put in complying with any such order (but subject to any provisions made by such order in relation to our costs). You acknowledge that we must respect the laws of other countries in which we operate, as well as those of the UK.

Errors

88. If you have any reason to think we have made a mistake you must tell us as soon as possible. If we make a mistake in administering your Account we will tell you and put it right unless the mistake is trivial. If the mistake is to your advantage rather than ours, we will act reasonably in putting it right.
89. If we, or any other person, debit or credit an amount to your Account by mistake, you agree that we may make any necessary correcting entry to your Account without having to seek your prior approval. Where any amounts are debited to your Account by mistake, our total liability to you shall, unless otherwise stated, be limited to payment to you of an equivalent amount.

Our Liability

90. We will not be liable to you in respect of any Losses that you or any other person may suffer or incur in connection with, or relating to, the Account except where such Losses are due solely to our acts, errors or omissions. In particular, we will not be liable to you or any other person for any Losses due to:

- your instructions not being sufficiently clear;
 - your acts, errors or omissions (for instance, where you have failed to provide correct information or to keep your information up-to-date);
 - any actions, limits or regulations imposed by any governmental, regulatory or other official body of any kind from time to time;
 - any acts, errors or omissions of a third party (e.g. an ATM operator or retailer);
 - anything which is expressly excluded or limited in the Agreement.
91. Furthermore, we will not be liable to you for any Losses whatsoever if we are prevented from providing banking or payment services by reason of acts of terrorism, failure of power supplies, interruption or breakdown of mobile phone networks, telecommunications networks or the internet, or the destruction, breakdown or malfunction of any third party systems, equipment or hardware.
92. Nothing in this Agreement will operate to limit or exclude our liability for any Losses where limitation or exclusion is prohibited by law.

General

93. The Agreement is governed by the laws of England and Wales. We shall be entitled to take proceedings in any jurisdiction in which you have assets or any other court of competent jurisdiction. You agree to submit to any jurisdiction in which we issue proceedings against you and you waive any objection to any claim, action or proceeding that has been brought in an inconvenient forum.
94. Any notice we give you shall be deemed to have been received by you in the case of a letter on the same day when delivered personally or 48 hours after it has been sent by post to you at the last address given by you to us, or in the case of an advertisement in a newspaper on the day the newspaper is published.
95. If any part of the Agreement is found to be invalid, unlawful or unenforceable for any reason, that part will be separated from the remainder, which will continue to apply.
96. We may transfer to any other business or person any or all of our rights and/or obligations under the Agreement provided such other business or person continues to perform the obligations under the Agreement. We may do this without telling you but your legal rights will not be affected and your obligations will not be increased as a result. You may not transfer any of your rights or obligations (in whole or in part) under the Agreement.
97. If we do not enforce, or delay in enforcing, some or all of our rights under the Agreement this will not prevent us from enforcing any such right at a later date. The fact that we allow you extra time to comply with your obligations does not mean that we cannot insist on strict application of our rights at a later date.
98. The Agreement (and any other documents referred to within it) represents the entire agreement between you and us regarding operation of the Account.
99. The Agreement is in English and all communications issued under, or in connection with, the Agreement will be in English.

The Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 shall not apply to the Agreement which means that no third party shall be entitled to benefit from, or enforce, any of its terms and conditions.

Section 3 – Special Conditions

The Special Conditions set out below relate exclusively to the provision of payment services and govern the future execution of individual and successive payment transactions on your Account.

Both the General Conditions and Special Conditions apply to the operation of your Account. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the Special Conditions and the General Conditions, the Special Conditions shall prevail.

General Information

- 1.1 Bank of Ireland UK is the provider of payment services in relation to your Account. As part of the Agreement, we have already outlined the main characteristics for each type of payment service we offer but, if you have a query relating to any types of payment services we offer, please call the Customer Service Centre for further information.
- 1.2 The full range of debit and credit transactions that we offer (together with further details relating to each type of transaction) is set out in the Transaction Information Box. If you want an additional paper copy of the Transaction Information Box, you can request a copy by calling the Customer Service Centre.
- 1.3 It is important that your contact details are correct and kept up-to-date. Therefore, if you change your correspondence address, telephone numbers or other contact details that you have given us, you must notify us as soon as possible by calling the Customer Service Centre. Failure to do so may mean that we are unable to provide you with information regarding the operation of your Account or any transactions carried out on it.

Payment Transactions

- 2.1 You should refer to the Transaction Information Box to see which types of payment transaction you may carry out on your Account. No other forms of payment transactions are permitted on your Account.
- 2.2 Once we have accepted your instruction to make a payment to someone, you will not be able to cancel it once the payment has left your Account. You may be able to cancel your instruction to make a payment from your Account provided you tell us before the relevant Cut-off Time.
- 2.3 In respect of any cash deposited to the Account by you or a third party, we will ensure that the amount of any such Deposit is credited to the Account immediately upon receipt of the same by us. However, please note that cash Deposits may have to pass through third party money transmission and clearing systems that we use for certain types of transactions, which may affect the date of receipt of such funds by us. You should refer to the Transaction Information Box for further detail in respect of when cash Deposit transactions will be credited to your Account and when the funds will be made available to you. Once a cash Deposit has been credited to your Account, it will be treated as Cleared Funds for the purposes of paying interest (if applicable).
- 2.4 We may decline individual transactions on your Account. If a transaction is declined, you will be informed at the time of the transaction and, where possible, you will be given the reasons for declining the transaction. If it is not possible to give you reasons for declining the transaction at the time, you can call the Customer Service Centre and we will explain to you why the transaction was declined. However, we reserve the right to withhold this information from you where its disclosure would put us in breach of a legal or regulatory requirement which applies to us or would otherwise compromise the security of your Account or those of our other customers.

Payment Orders

- 3.1 A 'Payment Order' is any instruction (whether given verbally, in writing or electronically) requesting the execution of a payment transaction on your Account. Where we receive a Payment Order:
 - before the Cut-off Time on any Business Day, we will treat your instruction as being received by us on the same Business Day;
 - after the Cut-off Time on any Business Day, we will treat your instruction as being received by us on the next Business Day;
 - out of Normal Working Hours, we will treat your instruction as being received by us on the next Business Day.
- 3.2 For the purposes of this provision, we will be deemed to have received a Payment Order when:
 - (a) it holds a properly authorised form of instruction (see Condition 3.8); and
 - (b) in the case of outgoing payments, we have been provided with the relevant Unique Identifier (see Condition 3.3). You acknowledge and agree that we will not be able to process any transaction in the absence of the same.
- 3.3 You are responsible for ensuring the correctness and accuracy of all Payment Orders for outgoing payments on the Account and you acknowledge that we are under no obligation to check whether the Unique Identifier or other information provided with a Payment Order is correct.
- 3.4 Until 1st January 2012, all payments made from your Account will be credited to the destination bank within 3 Business Days following the date of receipt of the Payment Order (D+3). With effect from 1st January 2012, all payments made from your Account will be credited to the beneficiary bank within 1 Business Day following the date of receipt of the Payment Order (D+1). Please refer to the Transaction Information Box for further information.
- 3.5 In respect of payments into the Account (i.e. credit payments), the Account will be credited with the amount of any such payment on the same Business Day as the payment value is received by us, save where the date of receipt is not a Business Day in which circumstances the Account will not be credited until the next Business Day.
- 3.6 Any incoming payment to the Account (whether made by you or a third party) is determined by us solely on the basis of the Account Number accompanying the payment. Where the Account Number is incorrectly stated on a Payment Order, we will take reasonable steps to recover the payment but you acknowledge that we shall have no liability for the non-execution of the payment to the Account.
- 3.7 We may refuse to act on any (incoming or outgoing) Payment Order where:
 - your instructions are unclear, incomplete or are not in the required form (e.g. they do not contain the sort code, account number or any other information that we need to process the transaction); or
 - your instructions are not authorised in accordance with the Mandate; or
 - we suspect fraudulent or other unlawful activity on the Account; or

- there are unavailable Cleared Funds; or
- to do so would put us in breach of a legal or regulatory requirement which applies to us.

Where we refuse to process a Payment Order for any reason, we will inform you accordingly in the manner we deem appropriate.

3.8 The way in which you must authorise individual payment transactions on your Account is detailed within the relevant section of the Transaction Information Box. In order to protect your Account, we have designed various Security Procedures for use in connection with certain types of payment transactions which you must complete to authorise these payment transactions. Where Security Procedures apply, you will be told what the relevant Security Procedures are when you instruct us to carry out a payment transaction. If a payment transaction is authorised in accordance with the relevant Security Procedures you will, in the absence of any evidence to the contrary, be liable for any such transactions. We may change our Security Procedures from time to time but, if we do this, you will be notified in advance.

Account Information

- 4.1 We will on a regular basis provide you with a written receipt or record of account (i.e. transaction receipt or statement) setting out the following details in respect of all transactions on your Account:
- a reference enabling you to identify each transaction;
 - the amount of the transaction;
 - the amount of any charges applied to the transaction;
 - where applicable, the exchange rate applied to the transaction; and
 - the debit or credit value date of the transaction.
- 4.2 The above information is also available in printable format via a secure web page on the Website, which allows you to access details of all transactions on the Account for the previous 30 days. Alternatively, if you cannot access the Website, you may request a printed record detailing all transactions on the Account for the previous 30 days by calling the Customer Service Centre.
- 4.3 We will send the written receipt or record of account to the Account Holder named first on the application form when you opened the Account.

Disputed Transactions

- 5.1 If at any time you become aware of:
- a transaction on your Account that has not been correctly executed; or
 - a transaction on your Account that has not been authorised by you, you must in each case notify us without undue delay and, in any event, within 13 months of the debit date of the transaction, by calling the Customer Service Centre so we can investigate the transaction.
- 5.2 The sooner you notify us and the more information you can provide about the transaction, the quicker we will be able to determine whether the transaction was in fact unauthorised or executed incorrectly. In some cases, we may ask you to put your query in writing. Failure to notify us promptly may mean that you are not entitled to a refund from us or other form of redress.
- 5.3 Once you have notified us of an alleged unauthorised or incorrectly executed transaction on your Account, we will promptly investigate your claim. In some cases, we may ask you to give us further information about the transaction (for instance, to enable us to confirm that the transaction was properly authenticated) or cooperate with the police or other enforcement bodies.

- 5.4 Where it is established that the transaction was not authorised by you, we will (subject to Conditions 5.5 and 5.7 below) refund the full amount of the transaction and, if applicable, restore the Account to the state it would have been in had the unauthorised transaction not taken place.
- 5.5 Where an unauthorised transaction is made using: (a) a lost or stolen ATM card; or (b) your ATM PIN, User ID or 6 Digit Security Number by someone other than you, and in each case you have reported it in accordance with the provisions of Condition 64 of the General Conditions, you will be liable for any unauthorised transaction, subject to a limit of £50 PROVIDED ALWAYS THAT you have not acted fraudulently or failed with intent or gross negligence to protect the security of your Account in which case you will be liable for all unauthorised transactions and for any and all Losses incurred by us in respect of such unauthorised use.
- 5.6 Where it is established that the transaction was incorrectly executed by us, we will (subject to Condition 5.7 below) refund the full amount of the transaction and, if applicable, restore the Account to the state it would have been in had the incorrectly executed transaction not taken place.
- 5.7 We reserve the right to refuse a refund under Condition 5.4 (for unauthorised transactions) and Condition 5.6 (for incorrectly executed transactions) on your Account where you fail to notify us within 13 months of the debit date of the transaction.
- 5.8 We reserve the right to debit from your Account the amount of any refunds paid to you where, upon further investigation, it is subsequently established that you are not entitled to a refund. If there is insufficient balance on the Account to debit the amount of any refunds paid to you in circumstances where you are not entitled to a refund, we reserve the right to take all reasonable steps (including legal proceedings) to recover from you the amount of any such refunds together with any fees, charges or expenses that we have incurred.
